

Riparian Area:

Creek, lake, slough, marsh, fringes that extend from the lowest water depth of rooted emergent vegetation (e.g., cattail) up the bank to the vegetation change from species dependent upon the water provided by that water body (i.e., water table) to species not dependent upon that water.